

Code of Conduct for Business Partners

Projektinredningar carries out its activities based on the core principles of Integrity and Corporate Social Responsibility. We expect the same from our business partners, such as suppliers, distributors, and agents. This Code explains these core principles and specifies what Projektinredningar expects. It sets out what we stand for.

Compliance

In this Code of Conduct for Business Partners, Projektinredningar has set down the principles governing its business transactions with its business partners. We expect them to act in accordance with all laws and regulations relating to the activities carried out for Projektinredningar. We expect all our business partners to adhere to the basic principles of this Code, or to adopt similar principles. In the event of any doubt or ambiguity, the relevant contact person at Projektinredningar should be asked for clarification. Failure to comply with this Code may result in action being taken, including termination of the business relationship as well claims being brought for damages and other rights.

We affirm our adherence to the core principles of this Code.

Name:

Company name:

Signature:

Integrity

Honest business practices

Our business partners shall conduct their business honestly, openly and with integrity. They shall not offer or justify bribery, nor shall they support any form of unethical business practices. They shall not pay bribes.

Entering into a business relationship with or for Projektinredningar or accepting certain general terms and conditions is not contingent on gifts or entertainment.

Our business partners shall not offer Projektinredningar employee's gifts or entertainment of excessive value. They shall never offer cash, or cash equivalents such as gift vouchers, to our employees.

Fair competition

Projektinredningar strictly prohibits restrictive agreements or practices, such as price-fixing, restriction of the supply of goods or services, bid rigging, market sharing or abuse of a dominant position. Our business partners shall not offer misleading products or services or offer them on behalf of Projektinredningar. We require our business partners to pursue free and fair competition and to comply with the relevant laws and regulations relating to competition.

Trade controls

Our business partners shall comply with all applicable import and export control legislation, including, but not limited to, sanctions, embargoes and other laws, regulations and government measures that control the transfer or shipment of goods and payments. They shall be familiar with and manage trade restrictions that apply to their transactions with us, including possible sanctions against countries and parties.

Conflicts of interest

Conflicts of interest between a business partner and Projektinredningar must be avoided. Conflicts of interest may relate to external business activities, personal or private interests, financial interests and/or 'inside' information. Personal or friendly relationships with an employee of Projektinredningar shall never be used to influence the professional judgement of that employee. If such a situation arises, or if there is a potential risk of a conflict of interest in a transaction or business relationship, our business partner must report this to Projektinredningar. Our partners shall not provide financial or other support to political parties to influence transactions with or for Projektinredningar.

Company resources

If they use or have access to Projektinredningar resources, including employees, systems, networks and facilities, our business partners must use these resources appropriately, in accordance with Projektinredningar instructions and for their intended business purpose only.

Fraud prevention

Our business partners must have internal controls designed to detect, prevent, and respond to fraud and money laundering. Transactions must be properly recorded and subject to review. Any potential fraud that may have an impact on Projektinredningar must be reported to us immediately.

Data protection, confidential information, and intellectual property

Our business partners shall comply with all applicable data protection laws. It is the business partner's responsibility to ensure that all confidential business information or trade secrets obtained through business activities with Projektinredningar (hereinafter referred to as 'confidential information') are kept strictly confidential and are not used improperly or disclosed to third parties. Our business partner must also protect and safeguard the intellectual property of Projektinredningar as confidential information.

Proper communication

Timely and factual communication with us is essential for a good and fruitful relationship. Our business partners shall carefully consider their business communications and shall not publish press releases about us, our products, or our business relationships without our express, prior approval.

Corporate Social Responsibility

Human rights

Our partners shall treat all individuals with respect and honesty. Our partners shall recognise the rights of all, as enshrined in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights including, but not limited to, the prohibition of forced or child labour, and the provision of reasonable wages, social benefits and working hours, individual rights to freedom of opinion and association and other fair terms and conditions of employment. They shall accept responsibility for avoiding human rights violations and, if necessary, for restoring human rights as a result of activities carried out for us and products manufactured for us.

They shall create a working environment free from retaliation, discrimination and harassment based on gender, age, race, colour, ethnicity, culture or origin, citizenship, religion, or belief, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.

Environment and society

Our business partners shall comply with all relevant environmental laws and have the necessary permits. They shall contribute to the efficient use of raw materials, energy and other natural resources and reduce waste, emissions, and noise pollution. They shall be involved in the society in which they operate and respond to any complaints and concerns.

Objections

Our business partners shall provide an opportunity for their employees and other stakeholders to raise concerns about violations, or potential violations, of legislation and of the principles of this Code of Conduct. These concerns shall be examined and handled in a fair and transparent manner.

Applicability to subcontractors

All parties engaged by our business partners to perform work on behalf of Projektinredningar or on behalf of Projektinredningar shall be made aware of the principles of this Code and shall act in accordance therewith.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR BUSINESS PARTNERS

This Code sets out the general requirements applicable to all business partners of affiliated companies of the Projektinredningar. Specific contractual provisions setting higher standards shall take precedence over these General Terms and Conditions. Where this Code conflicts with specific legislation, the legal provisions will always prevail.